

Simply Red
New Single - Oh! What A Girl!
Released September 18th on Simplyred.com

'Oh! What A Girl!' is the first track to be taken from the band's eagerly anticipated new album - due for release early 2007 - and is an irresistible taster of what's to come. An edgier sound than perhaps we've come to expect, the song has a swagger with its sexy attitude, soulful bassline, red hot brass arrangement and, of course, Mick's trademark vocals.

Recorded at London's Metropolis & Home studios earlier this summer, the new single is co-written by Mick Hucknall and is available on 2-track CD with an exclusive club version.

Produced and co-mixed by Andy Wright, whose previous work includes Annie Lennox and Natalie Imbruglia and, not forgetting, Simply Red on 2003's hugely successful, platinum-selling album 'Home'.

Their last LP, 'Simplified' - primarily a collection of re-worked Simply Red classics - entered the UK album chart at Number 3 on release, and sold over 1 million copies worldwide. It was the second album to be released on Simplyred.com and followed on from the aforementioned 'Home', which sold over 2.5 million copies worldwide.

This month, Mick and his accomplished live band will continue on their UK summer tour before embarking on a 30-date tour across Europe.
